MEETING PROCESS

Welcome! Meet your group facilitator.

Introductions. We want to know more about you!

Establish peer support agreements. It's important for us to have a space for confidentiality, respect, listening, non-judgement and a spirit of positivity.

Time to talk and check in with one another.

Facilitator introduces a theme and leads the conversation with specific questions.

Some meetings will have a special guest co-facilitator to add some additional insight.

What did you learn today? Reflect and process what you learned today. What actions are you taking away from today?

Closing with final checking in. Includes resources and handouts.
